

PDCOUNTRY SITE LICENSE

Peacock Data's site licenses are designed to be fair. They are broader than most software licenses in that they allow installation on not one but all computers in the same building within a single company or organization. We ask users to honor these simple rules so Peacock Data can continue bringing great products to users.

THE USE OF PDCOUNTRY IS GOVERNED BY THE FOLLOWING SITE LICENSE

- I. This Site License grants to the Licensee the right to install the licensed version of pdCountry (hereinafter, 'information') on all computers in the same building within a single company or organization. Separate Site Licenses must be purchased for each building the information is used in.
- II. The information may only be used by the employees of the Licensee. If the Licensee is an educational institution, the data may only be used by enrolled students, faculty, teaching assistants, and administrators.
- III. Temporary employees, contractors, and consultants of the Licensee who work on-site at the Licensee's facility may also use the information in connection with the operation of the business of the Licensee. Any copies of the information used by temporary employees, contractors, and consultants must be removed from such individual's computers once they cease working at the Licensee's facility.
- IV. The information cannot be used to provide services or products to customers or other third parties, whether for-profit or given away. A Developer License must be purchased separately by the Licensee to incorporate the information in for-profit services and products.
- V. The Licensee is required to use commercially reasonable efforts to protect the information and restrict network or any other access to the information by anyone inside or outside of the Licensee's facility who is not authorized to use the information.
- VI. The Licensee owns the media on which the information is recorded or fixed, but the Licensee acknowledges that Peacock Data, Inc. and its licensors retain ownership of the information itself.
- VII. The Licensee may not transfer or assign its rights under this license to another party without Peacock Data, Inc.'s prior written consent.
- VIII. Peacock Data, Inc. may revoke the rights granted by this license upon a violation of any provision herein by the Licensee.
- IX. This Site License is governed by Peacock Data, Inc.'s Terms of Service and Privacy Policy, and the laws and regulations of the United States and the State of California.
